Ammoniated Soluble Superphosphate | Ammoniated Soluble Superphosphate

THE STAR AMMONIATED SOLUBLE SUPER PHOSPHATE, having gained on its own merits, the greatest reputation of any Fertilizer ever sold in the United States.—Other manufacturers, are using the trade mark of the "STAR," for their articles, much inferior in quality, and that cost 100 per cent less. in order to make money for themselves, regardless of the interest of the poor farmer. The manufactures of the original "STAR," with ourselves have determined, in order to prevent the great impositions, now being practiced in some parts of the United States, and to save the name of that formerly known as the "STAR" to change the trade mark to L. & R. with the above cut, which has been duly patented Next Season each sack will contain precisely the same Fertilizer as we sold last season, but will be stamped with the new trade mark and the words will be printed on the back of each sack with the analysis. We refer to all farmers wh have used the STAR as to the reputation and value of the article as a Fertilizer.

FORMERLY THE STAR AMMONIATED

SOLUBLE

—Dont forget to Register.

—Several tramps are laying around.

—Trade brisk in all directions yesterday.

—Tangled-foot whisky seemed to flow yesterday.

—Chicken depredations in Ward No. 2. are reported.

—Our doctors report the health of the city as excellent.

—We hear that another hop club is soon to be organized.

—We hear that a lecture season will soon be inaugurated.

—Revenue collections yesterday amounted to 1,324.92.

—A general scarcity of cotton pickers is complained of by our farmers.

—Three marriage licenses were issued by the Register of Deeds yesterday.

—Julius Lewis Esq., has built a couple of handsome private residences just north of Lovejoy's Grove.

—The other night some vandal smashed one of the panes of glass of the inner door of the west entrance of the capitol.

We hear that negro midnight meetings are being held nightly on Vinegar Hill. Most of the leading local Republican white leaders are in the habit of attending, —We hear that sixty odd new negro names have been entered upon the registration book of Ward No. 4. Where did they come from? Our friends should be very vigilant.

—Adjutant General Gorman, who is at present helping to guard the penitentiary convicts at work on the North Carolina and Georgia Railroad, says that the mountains are on fire for Settle.

—Let there be a full turnout of the Democrats of this city this afternoon for the flag-pole raising. A rousing crowd should greet the orator of the evening, C. M. Busbee, at Metropolitan Hall.

—We hear that a number of Democratic tickets have been printed with Nowell's name on them. This is a dodge to get Democratic votes for the Republican nominee for sheriff. Look out.

Zwei Glass.

During the fair, the celebrated brewers, Messrs. Schalk Bros. made the Agricultural Society a present, through the saloonist, Theo. Joseph, of four kegs of their superior lager beer. How acceptable the present proved, and what an appropriate disposition was made of it, the following letter of thank from the Secretary of the Society shows:

N. C. AGRICULTURAL SOCIETY,
RALEIGH, N. C., Oct. [illegible]

DEAR SIR:—The four kegs of beer kindly presented by Messrs. Schalk Bros., through yourself, was duly received and highly appreciated. Our military companies, firemen and marshals all partook of it and pronounced it a very superior article. Please thank the gentlemen for their thoughtful kindness.

Very Respectfully,
C. B. DENSON, Secretary.

Campaign in Moore.

The campaign in Moore county closed a few days ago, and a live one it has been on the Democratic side. A correspondent writing from Jonesboro, under date of Oct. 23, says: "Our campaign has just closed. Messrs. Robbins and McIver have made the best campaign we have had in twenty years. We are all right in Moore, certain."

Bound Over.

Yesterday morning Junius Allen and Bryant Davis, both colored, were brought before Justice of the Pease B. A. Perry, in House's Creek township, on the charge of an affray. Both were bound over to the next term of our Superior Court in a bond of $200 each, which they gave.

DEMOCRATIC FLAG RAISING!!

Ballots Not Bullets!!

This afternoon, at 4 p. m, there will be a splendid flag raised by the Tilden and Vance Club on their pole, 140 feet high, at the corner of Fayetteville and Martin streets. Prominent gentlemen will make short addresses on the occasion.

Let all attend!

About to Pass in His Checks.

Yesterday afternoon Dr. Alston appeared before Justice of the Peace, Magnin and made affidavit that Cameron Wilcox, colored, was in great danger of his life on account of blows inflicted by Clinton Emory. It will be remembered that Emory was a special policeman on the fair grounds, and that on Friday a number of parties applied to him to remove Wilcox from the grounds, as he was very drunk and disorderly. This Emory endeavored, as was his duty, to do, but was met with a very stout resistance on the part of Wilcox. In fact, Wilcox made several very serious assaults upon him, and it was virtually in self-defence that Emory gave him the blows upon the head which the doctor now swears are about to prove fatal. The case will be investigated this morning before Justice of the Peace Magnin. We hear that Mr. Emory has abundant testimony to show that his action was both in discharge of his duty as a policeman and in self-defence.

Oak Grove.

Good weather favored the candidates at Oak Grove yesterday. A considerable crowd was present to hear what they had to say. On the Republican side Mr. Thomas Purnell led off in a bloody-shirt harangue, and was appropriately followed by Mr. H. C. Olive, on the part of the Democrats. M. G. Todd, the newly nominated Republican, did nothing more than announce himself and was sorry for that before the day was over.

J. Eaton Bledsoe's spread-eagleism was the feature of the day. His soarings were so lofty that it is feared that the poor boy has not touched ground yet.

Messrs. Whitley, Jones, Page and Snow told the good people of Oak Grove some solid truths in a terse and comprehensive manner. "Honest" Bob Wynne was on the ground, but didn't have much to say. He don't wear the gold watch Tim. Lee gave him to perform an official act, but an old bull-eye silver one.

The indications are that we will make a large gain in this township.

Tan Yard Burned.

Yesterday morning, between the hours of 1 and 2, the tan yard of R. G. Lewis, Esq., located on the Louisburg road, about two miles north of this city, was destroyed by fire. The fire is supposed to have been the act of an incendiary, as no fire had been in the part of the establishment which first caught for over a week The fire was first discovered by a negro boy who was sleeping on the premises, but at that time was under full headway. We regret to learn that there is no insurance on the property, and that in the main building there was a large quantity of dressed leather ready to be sent into market. We understand that it is Mr. Lewis' opinion that the buildings were first robbed, and then fired by the thieves in order to cover up their tracks. This is merely a conjecture and may have no foundation in fact. We heartily sympathise with Mr Lewis in his loss, and trust that it may not prove a source of serious embarrassment to him.

This gentleman, the able Democratic elector of the Third Congressional District, arrived in this city yesterday direct from a vigorous canvass in Carteret county. Major McRae has canvassed nearly all of the counties of his district, and reports that the prospect for a glorious Democratic triumph is bright indeed This State has no truer son or more accomplished gentleman that Major McRae, and the good people of good old Cumberland have every reason to be proud of him. The Major did not tarry long with us, but left in the afternoon for his home in Fayetteville.

Ravages of Diptheria.

We regret to hear that this fell disease is raging in Chapel Hill and vicinity. At last accounts Jones Watson, Esq., was very ill with it, and of his family three grandchildren and a daughter had died within the past week. The ravages of the disease is, as a general thing, confined to children, but quite a number of adults have been seized with a very malignant form of it. We hear that the mortality in that section has been alarmingly great in the past two weeks.

Echoes from the Fair.

The last installment of employes, were paid off yesterday by Treasurer Wiley. In these settlements, we are pleased to know, general satisfaction has been given to those who furnished their services for compensation during our late exposition. In the daily mention of meritorious contributors we cannot neglect to name Mrs. J. G. Wilson, of Henderson, Granville county, whose specimens of jellies &c., amounting to over one hundred entries, stood out in admirable display and deserves great praise. Her ladies' handiwork was much admired; her sewing silk, manipulated from the cocoon up, and dyed by her own hands shows what can be accomplished in this important branch of domestic industry. She asserts that it is her intention to weave the material and make of it a fine silk dress for her own wearing.

Mrs M. J. Lucas, formerly of this city, but now a resident of Charlotte, a lady eighty-two years of age, presented several specimens of the most beautiful lace work, wrought by her own hands.

In the face of these facts who can say we cannot become a manufacturing people, especially if the proper appreciation is given to native industry, and a progressive stimulus afforded, which shall encourage the handiwork of our industrious people of both sexes?

First Ward Meeting.

In accordance with a previous announcement the Democrats and Conservatives of Ward No 1 met last evening in Metropolital Hall, for the purpose of organizing a Tilden and Vance Club in that ward for effective work between this time and election day. After the usual preliminary motions Mr. Graham Haywood was chosen President and Mr. Falk Arendell, Secretary. Motions were made and carried for the appointment of several committees for campaign purposes. The committees will be named to-day by the President. The meeting was a good one in every respect, and its deliberations were characterized by good sense and harmony.

To-night, at 7:30 o'clock, the Democrats of Ward No. 2 will hold a meeting, in the Court House, to form their club. We hope to see a full tournout on the part of the Democrats of this ward. The formation of active working ward clubs will contribute materially to our success in the coming election.

Mayor's Court.

His Honor, Mayor Manly, dealt with these cases yesterday morning:

Marcellus Alford, prominent colored African politician in this community, arraigned for stealing a shoulder of meat, Tuesday night, from the store of Sorrell & Jackson. The stealing was clearly proved and Marcellus was bound over to appear at the Superior Court of Wake county in a bond of $200, Col. Jno. N. Bunting surety.

David Powers, drunk and down, $5 fine and $2.25 cost.

The case of Greeley Milligan and Stokes Crump, affray, did not come to a trial, being postponed until this morning.

Mechanics' T. and V. Club.

N. B. Broughton, President of this Club, requests us to urge upon members to turn out in full force this afternoon, at 4 o'clock, to assist the Young Men's Club in raising their flag-pole. He also desires that the Club come out as fully as possible to hear the address of C. M. Busbee Esq., in the evening, at Metropolitan Hall Upon the conclusion of Mr. Busbee's address the Club will proceed to the transaction of some necessary business, and the books will be open for the reception of names of new members.

Yesterday morning, about 11 o'clock, the residents of the eastern portion of McDowell street witnessed a rather exciting runaway. The horse attached to the lumber wagon of W. T. Adams & Co. took it into his head to have things his own way for once, so off he dashed, and for a few minutes it was thought, by those witnessing the affair, that a new wagon, another horse and a coroner would be surely needed. Fortunately, however, the vivacious quadruped was checked in his wild career in time to prevent any serious harm.

The Same Old Request.

We, for the one hundredth time at least, respectfully ask pastors and church officers to hand to us Saturday mornings notices in regard to the services in their respective churches, in order to have the directory in the issue of the following morning accurate. This directory is not only a matter of interest to strangers who may happen to be in the city, but to a large number of our own citizens. We hope that the gentlemen above alluded to will put themselves to some little trouble in order to accommodate so many.

Attention Democrats.

The Chairman of the Democratic Township Executive Committee, J. A. Harris, Esq., calls upon all Democrats and Conservatives to look after their names on the registration books. The books close on November 6th at sundown. The following are the places for registering and voting:

HOW TO VOTE.

There is an error prevalent in some parts of the State in respect to the manner of voting for Presidential Electors. It is erroneously supposed by some that a voter casts his ballot only for the two electors at large and the elector for his district. This is wrong. The whole body of electors, consisting of the two from the State at large and one from each of the eight Congressional districts, is to be voted for by each voter, upon one ticket.

The electoral ticket to be voted in the ensuing election must contain the names of the two electors for the State at large and all the eight Congressional district electors.

We hope the press of the State will call attention to this important matter.

IMPORTATION OF NEGRO VOTERS--WATCH THE POLLS!

The Republicans see defeat staring them in the face. They are growing desperate. It is said in Washington that they have formed a plan to import several thousand negroes from Maryland and Virginia into this State, to vote for Hayes and Settle. A notorious negro leader, named Perry Carson, is reported to be engaged now in organizing this movement. The information comes in a shape which entitles it to credit; and we must believe that such a scheme is seriously talked of among the leaders at the Capital, if it is not actually being carried on now.

It would be difficult to characterize in fitting terms the infamy of this design. It is a flagrant, wicked violation of every principle of law, justice constitutional liberty and political honesty. None but thieves and scoundrels would seriously entertain even the thought of attempting such a gross fraud.

We do not fear it. No harm can come of it—if the Democrats of North Carolina in general, and the Executive Committees in particular, do their duty. We have nothing to do but to watch the polls, and the registration books. Let every Conservative, whatever his peculiar station in the party, feel it his sacred duty to see that none of this imported cattle are suffered to approach our ballot-boxes. The right of challenge is open to us. No officer, Federal or State, can abridge it. No freeman should be deterred from exercising it rigidly, fearlessly.

A plan of this kind was tried in Indiana. The Republicans attempted to carry thousands of negroes from Kentucky and other States to sustain the kid-glove son of his grandfather. Unscrupulous Republican managers concocted the vile scheme Despicable tools were employed to execute it. But it failed, ingloriously; and Radicalism bit the dust.

And why did it fail? Because of the vigilance of the Democrats of Indiana and of Kentucky. In the same manner the Democrats of North Carolina, with the co-operation of our brothers in Virginia and Maryland may easily prevent this threatened importation. If the executive committees of these three States will act in concert, no considerable number of darkies can possibly reach North Carolina without our knowing of their coming. And "forewarned is fore-armed."

The county and township committees, especially the committees of those counties lying along the Virginia border, should have a list of every voter, black and white, radical and democrat. With these lists in hand, by due watchfulness of the registration books and the closest vigilance on the day of election, not a single one of these Virginia or Maryland negroes will be able to deposit a ballot. Much depends upon these local committees; and in the name of law and order, of peace and security, of constitutional liberty and all that we hold dear as freemen, we would urge them to ceaseless activity and untiring oversight of the books and boxes until election day.

The Democrats of North Carolina desire nothing so much as a fair election. They demand it! They have it in their power to secure it, in spite of the Radical tricksters, carpet-baggers, devils and imported darkies. We do not intend to allow these unscrupulous political vagabonds to cheat us out of our rights and liberties. We would deserve reproach; we would deserve to be governed by negroes and carpet-baggers if we supinely yield to fraud when we have the power and the opportunity to prevent it.

REPUBLICAN DESPOTISM AND WRONG.

The treatment of South Carolina by the Republican party and the Federal Administration, is more than tyrannical; it is infamous. Grant and Chamberlain are playing the despot with a most high hand. Neither the constitution nor the laws which they are sworn to support, are regarded by them. They defy the one, and trample upon the other.

The Federal military power may be exercised against citizens of a given State, on the application of the Legislature, or of the executive, when the Legislature cannot be convened, of any State, to protect that State against domestic violence. The Constitution recognizes the State as the sovereign power having the exclusive authority to quell domestic violence or insurrection against the State Government, and it simply imposes the duty upon the United States to furnish, on application, such aid as may be necessary to assert this power. Hence in this instance, the designated State authorities are declared to be the judges of the necessity for such assistance.

The military of the United States has been sent into South Carolina, on motion of Gov. Chamberlain, alone. The Legislature could have been convened, and the constitutional requirement conformed to. His failure to do so, makes his call for troops illegal, and Grant's action based upon that illegal demand, a palpable violation of the Constitution and the Law.

It is well known why Chamberlain did not convene the Legislature in special session to consider the propriety of asking for Federal assistance. He felt that the Legislature would not sustain his application, as they, like the Judiciary of the State, could not do otherwise than testify to the existence of perfect peace in the various counties—Aiken, perhaps, excepted. These facts prove conclusively that the proclamations and the troops are but part of a conspiracy of the Governor and the Administration at Washington to carry the State for Chamberlain and Hayes.

This is not all. A deeper wrong still has been inflicted upon those patient and long-suffering, but undaunted people. The white companies have all been disarmed and disbanded; but no steps have been taken as yet to disarm or disband the negro organizations, who still parade with arms furnished by the State. The bloody massacres at Cainhoy, and in Edgefield, were done with muskets and ammunition furnished the negroes by Chamberlain.

To show the wicked purpose of this scheme of bayonet rule, it may be noted that while arrests of whites are made by the Federal authorities the agencies of the State Courts are invoked when blacks are arrested. This is done to impress the blacks with the belief that the troops are to be used solely against the whites. To increase the infamy of the proceeding, the treacherous negroes who butchered unarmed white men at Cainhoy have not even been arrested although they are well known.

Who can justify such high-handed, unjust, and malignant measures as these? Will the better class of Republicans in North Carolina co-operate longer with a party that is capable of doing these enormous acts of despotism and wrong? Will they countenance the effort to subjugate the whites of our sister State to Negro Rule?

SAVE OUR STATE.

North Carolina owes to the Union a sacred duty—to cast her ten electoral votes for the cause of reform, retrenchment and reconciliation. We believe our party are wide-awake to the necessity of Tilden's triumph, for the salvation of the country and the bettering of our condition politically, commercially and financially. Every intelligent man knows that if he would have better times and more of it, he must cast his ballot for Tilden and Hendricks; for on them hangs the destiny of the Union.

But, we have a still more sacred and more imperative duty to perform in this crisis. We must save our State from the Republican party. We must elect our State ticket, and ratify the amendments proposed by the Convention of 1875. New ruin will come upon the State, if Holden's party get control of it. We judge of trees by their fruit; of men by their acts; of parties by their record when in power. The Republicans had power for two years. Have their crimes against the State been forgotten? Do men no longer remember how the native Republicans struck hands with the unscrupulous northern adventurers and speculators? Have we lost sight of the fact that the Republican party put in power over us a lot of negroes and thieving strangers? Let it never be forgotten that Radicalism gave us for rulers, such men as Holden, Tourgee, Pool, Abbott, Ashley, Jim Harris, Bishop Hood, Billy Smith, Windy Billy Henderson, Tom Settle, and others of that stamp, native and foreign, white black, and black-and-tan. Let it never be blotted from the minds of those who love North Carolina that the Republican party massed the negroes against the whites; robbed the treasury; destroyed the credit of the State; waged war upon the people to help the party; subverted the constitution; suffered the writ of habeas corpus to go down; and took the life of one of their own friends for political effect.

JAMES C. MACRAE.

Several of our cotemporaries have the electoral ticket wrong. John D. Stanford is published as elector for the third district. Mr. Stanford is a candidate for the Senate from Duplin and Wayne. He resigned his place upon the electoral ticket and in his stead was substituted the name of James C. MacRae, of Cumberland.

A mistake in the electoral ticket will lose votes to Tilden. We would therefore urge our friends throughout the State to at once substitute for the name of Mr Stanford that of James C. MacRae.

THE official vote of Ohio aggregates 631,065—the largest vote ever polled in the State. Barnes, Republican candidate for Secretary of State, received 317 857; Bell, Democrat, 311,410; the Independent, 1,799. The Republican majority was 6,447. Hayes' majority last year was 5,444. The Republican Congressional vote aggregated 314,540, on the 10th inst., the opposition Congressional, 314 719—leaving 179 opposition majority. Good enough!

GOV. CHAMBERLAIN, it is asserted, declares that "he would give $10,000 to get out of the position he now occupies politically, and he would give $100,000 to escape all the vituperation and abuse that is being heaped upon him." The time will yet come when he, with other exposed hypocrites, will call upon the mountains to hide him.

THE county canvass is proceeding finely. The prospect of carrying Wake brightens daily, under the inspiration of Mr. Snow's effective eloquence and the telling speeches of our candidates for the House.

ALEX. SINCLAIR, the son of the 'fighting parson," has been arrested for robbing the United States mail. One of the worst things about the Republican party of North Carolina is that it teaches the young to steal. Can we look for figs to grow on thistles, or honest sons to come from robber sires?

HON. THOMAS S. ASHE, Gen. Atlas J. Dargan and Col. R. T. Bennett are engaged in an active canvass in the Pee Dee section. There is not within all our borders a more earnest and effective trio than these three. We may count on the finest report from that part of the State.

LET everybody turn out to hear Charles M Busbee, Esq. to-night, at Metropolitan Hall. He speaks by invitation of the Mechanics' Tilden and Vance Club, upon the issues of the day. The Young Men's Tilden and Vance Club will be present.

WE hold out to the moderate, sensible Republicans of this county the Olive of peace and reconciliation. If they reject it we will Snow them under on the 7th of November, and be done with them forever.

JAMES C. MACRAE is the Democratic elector for the third district; not John D. Stanford, as is published in a number of papers.

IN South Carolina we may see what Radicalism can bring a State to. "The army has the floor."

BE SURE to have the electoral ticket right.

POLITICAL NOTES.

Hooker predicts that the State of New York will give Tilden fifty thousand majority.

Mr. Evarts could not be beguiled into politics this campaign, but he said in a speech about a year ago: "Gov. Tilden deserves and will receive the support of honest people, regardless of party interests and political distinctions."

Judge Edward Cantwell, who has belonged to the Radical party of North Carolina since its foundation, has come out and repudiated it. He will be quite an acquisition to the Democratic side, and the Radicals can't well get along without him.—Petersburg Index-Appeal.

The Hon. B. F. Butler said in his speech in defence of Oakes Ames in the Credit-Mobilier trial, 'That the only difference between his client and the other Credit-Mobilier men was his client told the truth!" What says Hon. Jas G. Blaine to this?

Gov. Brogden has declined to designate a North Carolina day at the Centennial exhibition. As Brogden is a Radical, the organs of Hayes cannot bring against him the lying charges of disaffection which they allege against Governor Kemper of Virginia.

May 19, 1875, Senator Booth of California denounced the Republican party, of which he was a member, as "dead; it cumbers the ground and pollutes the air"—"it is rotten and ought to be destroyed" Mr. Booth now supports this rotten party. Like every other Radical in the country, Mr Booth is a scoundrel, a liar and a thief.—Index Appeal

A Hayes and Wheeler club (negro) of Washington lately passed the following graceful tribute to the hero of Dutch Gap: Resolved, that we recognize in Gen. B F. Buttler an able defender of freedom, both in war and peace, and his defeat would be a disgrace to Massachusetts, as well as comfort to the banditti of the South.

The Hon. Henry S. Dawes enjoyed the soubriquet of the "Artful Dodger" up to the Credit-Mobilier investigation. Since ex-Speaker Blaine called Cox to the chair, and asked that the committee for the investigation of the great American swindle have a majority of Democrats, that title by lineal descent has been transferred to him.

Hon. Charles Francis Adams of Massachusetts, has been interviewed on the subject of President Grant's late proclamation and the quartering of the regular army as a police force on South Carolina. He has not investigated the subject thoroughly, but considers the President's action unnecessary, an insult to the people of the South, and of doubtful legality.

RADICAL CAMPAIGN SONG

Sing a song of sixpence,
Pocket full of cash—
And buy up the white trash,
When election's over,
If we the victory gain,
We can get our money back
By stealing it again.

—Manasses Gazette.

A. H. Stephens.

We spent some time this week with Hon. A. H. Stephens, at Liberty Hall. The old statesman has quite recovered his ordinary state of health, and looks as well as we have seen him during the last five years. He has an excellent appetite enjoys the bountiful repasts of his home table, and is never so well pleased as when old and new friends partake of his good cheer. So well, indeed, is Mr. Stephens that Gen. Toombs, who tarried between trains while we were there, and is himself in robust condition, declared emphatically that he had 'named Alick as his executor."—Augusta (Ga.) Constitutionalist.

The attempt to carry South Carolina for Chamberlain and Hayes is born of the desperation of Grantism, trembling on the verge of ruin. Grant's proclamation should be the death of the system which it was fabricated to sustain.

STATE CANVASS.

Gen. J. M. Leach spoke at Rock Hill S. C yesterday.

Hon. Edwin W. Kerr of Sampson, is making an earnest and vigorous canvass in his senatorial district.

Gen. Matt W. Ransom will speak at Shelby Saturday, Oct. 28th; at Rutherfordton, Friday Oct. 27th.

The negro politicians of Cumberland county are raising a row about being shoved aside by their white allies.

In speaking of local matters the Charlotte Observer says: In addition to the Kerr and Cresswell matter, there seems to be another little cause of difference in the camp. It is rumored that a certain amount of money for campaign purposes, was sent to one faction, when the other faction thought it should have been sent to them.

In times like these, when the true friends of the country are exerting themselves everywhere for Reform, it is certainly the duty of every man who professes to be a Conservative or Democrat to rally to the support of the Democratic candidates without regard to personal feelings of likes or dislikes, and without regard to past differences of opinion about the manner of selecting candidates.

What do they mean? To destroy the Democratic party. Where do they go politically in a short time? To the Radicals fully. Why do we know this? Because it is the history of nine out of ten of all independents. Who is the Moses that is now leading the independents through the wilderness? Squire Albright, chairman of the Radical Executive Committee.—Alamance Gleaner.

The Washington Echo in speaking of the Congressional contest in the 1st district says: "Our advices from the parts of the District canvassed by Major Yeates and Mac Lindsey continue to be of a very encouraging character, and argue a glorious success at the polls. To doubt the election of Yeates would be to insult the intelligence the virtue and honesty of the people."

Louis Napoleon Tactics.

United States soldiers are marching into South Carolina—foot, horse, and artillery—as if the State was engaged in a war against the Union, instead of merely laboring with the true men of the whole country to overthrow at the ballot box the corrupt rule of Grantism and to lift up the Commonwealth, so long prostrate under the heels of the scoundrels who now seek to keep it from rising The people will utterly crush out a party which resorts to arms to maintain its dominance. We rule by ballots in this republic, not by arms and the tactics of Louis Napoleon cannot be long imitated here.—N. Y. Sun.

It is with great satisfaction that we read the letter of the Mayor of Savannah announcing that no further charitable contributions are needed for the sufferers by yellow fever in that city. We trust that the plague will soon be spent, and that it will be very many years before it again afflicts Savannah.

GRANT MISUSING THE ARMY.

SENDING TROOPS TO KEEP A GANG OF THIEVES IN POWER.

South Carolina to be Fixed for Chamberlain--What was Said by the Soldiers who Started from Governor's Island Yesterday--An Armed Invasion in Time of Peace.

The drum rattled for parade early on Governor's Island yesterday morning, and the soldiers were marched out to parade ground on the seaward side of the island by Lieut. Lea Febiger, officer of the day. Lieut. Ellis then inspected the equipments of the soldiers, most of whom were to start for Columbia, S. C., within a few hours. As soon as the officers had tossed aside their chapeaux and swords in their quarters they began to converse about the journey to Columbia, and in the barracks the private soldiers discussed the same topic even more eagerly. All of Company A, fifty men, and the majority of the recently enlisted men, were to go to Columbia. Capt. and Brevet Major E G Bush would command the entire detachment, aided by Lieuts. Febiger and Ellis. Said an officer of Company A:

"We do not like going to the South to be used for the purpose for which we are evidently to be used. We believe that the assertion that the South Carolinians are insurrectionary, or that they are likely to be, is false. The only object to be gained by the Administration in sending us, or other detachments of the United States army, to South Carolina, is the awing of peaceable voters so that they will be disinclined to go to the polls with Democratic tickets. We entertain no doubt that using us for the purpose of affecting the voting of the citizens of a State is unconstitutional. It is, in fact, an outrage.

We do not believe that we shall be ordered to shed blood in South Carolina, but who can say positively that we may not? We are to be there as the agents of tyranny, a constant provocation to an outraged people, who may be stung to resistance by the marshals whom we are to support. Then the muskets in our hands will be used. I think I can say truthfully that never were soldiers more unwilling to obey an order than we are to obey that which directs us to Columbia.

"This outrageous armed invasion of a peaceful State by the command of a Republican Administration should be the death blow of the Republican party. I believe that it makes the election of Gov. Tilden and the beginning of an era of peace in the United States assured facts. There is no necessity for us, nor for any other United States soldiers, in South Carolina.

"The pretence of the Administration is that the negroes of South Carolina need protection. It is preposterous. The greater part of the militia of South Carolina are negroes, armed with the State's arms and ammunition. They are more than strong enough to protect their race should an occasion for protecting it occur. But it will not. The South Carolinians, blacks and whites, who are disgusted with the villainy of the carpet-bag government of their State—and they are the majority—wish to elect their candidates for office peaceably. They desire least of all things to interfere with the few ignorant or depraved whites and blacks who will vote for the prolongation of carpet-bag rule, because they do not want to give the Administration any reason for surrounding their ballot boxes with bayonets.

"They have suffered bitterly, they are suffering and their only desire is to escape suffering in the future by voting peaceably for a pure government. The North should sympathize with them, and say decidedly that the administration shall not manacle their hands. Yet after all, this trampling under foot the constitutional rights of a State may be a providential dispensation for the Democratic party. It may rouse that part of the North, the East and the West which is not yet thoroughly Democratic to the determination to route the Republican party utterly in November.

a devo[illegible] Grant may be, secretly, working [illegible]ocrat. He certainly is Republicern pa[illegible]ively against the Democrat. I believe the stanchest onets and those of othe[illegible] bayments of the United States soldiers and even the cannon of the artilery, will not prevent South Carolina and Louisiana from giving Democratic majorities, for if they are only moderately scared by us, most of the negroes of both states will poll Democratic votes."

Rebel War Claims--A Republican Ring Interested in Them--The Record of Two Congresses.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 2[illegible] [illegible] so much has been said the record compiled by Henry H. Smith, Clerk of the Committee on War Claims of the Forty-third Congress, gives the following official facts: The Democrats here assert that the rebel war claims are mainly the property of the War Department Washington Ring; that in 1872 Gen. E. V. Rice, who was Belknap's go-between in the post-tradership swindles, was the representative of the combination that purchased nearly all the pretended claims against the Government for damages incurred by citizens during the war. The Forty-third Republican Congress passed these claims to the amount of about $6,000,000, while the present Democratic House at the last session passed Southern claims to the amount of only $74,000 exclusively held by original owners. The Congress (Republican) reported such claims favorably to the extent of about $8,000,000, including the infamous cotton claims, while the Committee of the Democratic House of the Forty-fourth Congress reported favorably on the same class of claims to the extent of only $217,000. The claims passed by the Forty-third Congress, under Republican control, were almost exclusively assigned to members of the Washington combination and owned by them. There are very few of the rebel war claims outstanding in the hands of the original losers, and the Democrats say that the present House at its last session saved the country several millions of dollars by refusing to consider these claims, which were to a great extent fictitious or exaggerated, and that the cry on this subject raised by the Republicans is instigated by the Ring, who hope, in the event of Hayes's election, to carry out their plans of realizing profits from these fictitious demands. The Republican carpet-bag members from the South are said to be all interested in this plot, and the official record of the action on the subject by the Forty-third Congress substantiates the allegation.

The Hampton Family of South Carolina.

[New York Sun.]

The old General, grandfather of the present Gen. Wade Hampton—a general in the Revolutionary War, of 1812—was one of the wealthiest planters in all the South, having sugar plantations in Louisiana and large cotton plantations in South Carolina. But he was also a man of strong passions and intense prejudices. His only surviving son by a first marriage was Col. Wade Hampton, who had married a wealthy lady, and was father of a large family, of which the present Gen. Wade Hampton was one. A disagreement occurred between old Gen. Hampton and his second wife, the mother of three daughters, and in his anger he left them homeless and unprovided for, and went to Louisiana. Col. Wade Hampton, not having the fear of his father's wrath before him—as most sons might have had—at once resolved upon the course to which his instincts pointed. He purchased for his stepmother and half-sisters the finest dwelling in Columbia, furnished the establishment with servants, equipages, and every luxury, and through twelve years maintained them in every comfort to which they had been accustomed. At the death of the old General, it was discovered that he had devised his whole estate amounting to more than $1,600,000, to his son alone, but, with the unbounded generosity of that son's nature, he divided his inheritance, share and share alike equally with his stepmother and sisters, and would consent to reserve for himself only such a portion as the others received. Nor was Mrs. Hampton undeserving or unmindful of the stepson's devoted sacrifice. On an occasion, in 1828, while Col. Hampton was absent in Louisiana, the notes of a friend for whom he was endorser at the bank, were protested for $42,000. So soon as word of this event reached her she promptly sent a check to the bank for the full amount, accompanied by only the simple instructions that Col. Hampton should be spared all knowledge of the annoying circumstance. L.

Disgraceful Conduct.

[Southern Home.]

We learned at Monroe that Dockery and Settle after the speaking in that town went to a Radical house to spend the night. A crowd of roughs went with them. A mock trial of cow stealing was held with Good Templar Settle as Judge, so drunk that he could not sit up. At bed time they were piled in as thick as bees, some in the house and some in the porch. Whiskey and new cider proved too much for the loyal crowd and the house the next morning was the filthiest on the continent. Our friend, Col. Polk, alludes to this shameful affair, and ends his account of it thus:

'It is said that certain women in North Carolina, have cut a large hickory flail pole, and placed it in the chimney jam and avow that they 'will be consarned if they don't teach some folks manners even if they do think they are big folks, hereafter when they come around through that country.' Come tell us all about it."

Troops for Hayes and Wheeler.

[From the Portland Argus Oct. 20.]

Yesterday the United States troops stationed at Fort Preble marched through the street on their way to South Carolina, under the orders of President Grant, to secure the election of the Hayes ticket in that State.

That is the object as everybody knows; and when our citizens saw these men with arms and knapsacks, marching as if to war, in time of peace, they could but realize the more forcibly how times have changed. Once an Administration guilty of such an outrage would have been condemned by an outburst of indignation from men of all parties, that would have made even the stolid Grant quail. How intelligent Republicans can now acquiesce in and endorse by their votes such a proceeding passes our comprehension. We know that some Republicans, at least condemn it in the strongest terms.

Work, Men, Work!

[Pee Dee Herald.]

Edi[illegible] tees, private speakers, clubs, committees, we call upon, citizens, white men, all: we invoke you, we beseech you to throw off your lethargy and inactivity and give a few days and weeks to your country's cause. There is too much confidence of victory—the white people rely too much upon their supposed strength; there is not enough determined, vigorous united [illegible] short of what those few are doing, the disgrace of it must attach to those who are idle, indifferent and apathetic.

A Chivalrous Republican.

[Southern Home.]

We were told the other day in Monroe of the chivalry of Allen Jordan, Radical candidate for Congress in this District. A man testified that he had seen Allen lying on his back in his porch studying a political almanac, while his wife was plowing a little steer in the corn patch. Allen is a weak ignorant creature without character, whom Dockery has brought out as the victim of the party. The great Radical leaders are very quiet in this canvass, from which we infer that not much money has been sent down for the canvass.

A Want Supplied.

[N Y Tribune.]

The American mind is active. It has given us books of fiction for the sentimentalist, learned books for the scholar and professional student, but few books for the people. A book for the people must relate to a subject of universal interest. Such a subject is the physical man, and such a book "the people's common sense Medical Adviser," a copy of which has been recently laid on our table. The high professional attainments of its author—Dr. R. V. Pierce, of Buffalo, N. Y.,—and the advantages derived by him from an extensive practice, would alone insure for his work a cordial reception. But these are not the merits for which it claims our attention. The author is a man of the people. He sympathizes with them in all their afflictions, efforts, and attainments. He perceives their want—knowledge of themselves—and believing that all truth should be made as universal as God's own sunlight, from his fund of learning and experience he has produced a work in which he gives them the benefits of his labors. In it he considers man in every phase of his existence, from the moment he emerges "from a rayless atom, too diminutive for the sight, until he gradually evolves to the maturity of those Conscious powers, the exercise of which furnishes subjective evidence of our immortality." Proceeding upon the theory that every fact of mind has a physical antecedent, he has given an admirable treatise on Cerebral Physiology, and shown the bearings of the facts thus established upon individual and social welfare. The author believes with Spencer, that "as vigorous health and its accompanying high spirits are larger elements of happiness than any other things whatever, the teaching how to maintain them is a teaching that yields to no other whatever," and accordingly has introduced an extensive discussion of the methods by which we may preserve the integrity of the system and oftimes prevent the onset of disease. Domestic Remedies—their preparation, uses, and effects—form a prominent feature of the work. The hygientic tratment, or nursing of the sick, is an important subject, and receives attention commensurate with its importance. Nearly all diseases "to which flesh is heir" are described, their symptoms and causes explained, and proper domestic treatment suggested. To reciprocate the many favors bestowed upon him by a generous public, the author offer his book at a price ($1,50) little exceeding the cost of publication. Our readers can obtain this practical and valuable work by addressing the author.

Nothing Reliable Yet—Reports and Contradictions—Now You See It and Now You Don't—Rumored Assassination of a Turkish Consul.

LONDON, Oct. 25.—A correspondent in the Turkish army in Servia reports that the Turks took Djunis after ten hours' hard fighting.

The Times' correspondent at Vienna says that the Porte is willing to accept a six weeks' armistice if recommended by all the powers. While the affairs look better at Constantinople, one can trace all around Turkey the iron ring prepared by Russia.

The master cotton spinners of north and northeastern Lancashire met at Manchester and agreed to urge all masters to enforce the general lock-out, as they consider the terms adopted by the operatives, October 22d, unsatisfactory.

The Times' Berlin correspondent says that the Russian iron-clad "Peter the Great" was recalled just when leaving Cronstadt for the Mediterranean.

The News' Belgrade dispatch says that Milan has received positive and formal assurances of Austria's non-intervention.

A dispatch from Paris to Reuter's telegram company says that intelligence has been received there that the Turkish Consul, and his wife, at Tiflis, capital city of Georgia, in Asiatic Russia, have been assassinated.

SENILIN, Oct. 25.—It is stated here that the Servian government attribute the recent reverses to their forces to the remissness and incapacity of General Tchernyoff. Servians deny the capture of Djunis by the Turks.

The Vienna correspondent of the News reports that arrests continue to be made in Constantinople on account of the last conspiracy. It is alleged that the purpose of the conspirators was to forcibly depose the reforming government. A former Grand Vizer, Mahmonun Pasha, is said to be implicated. Members of the cabinet were to have been seized at the moment when Gen. Ignatieff arrived at the palace, and the Beys in Bosina were at the same time to have made demonstrations of revolt.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Oct. 25.—Gen. Ignatieff, Russian Ambassador, presented his credentials to the Sultan yesterday, and subsequently had a private interview with him.

Several more arrests have been made in consequence of the conspiracy to assassinate the Grand Vizlier and Midhat Pasha.

Fatal Railroad Accident.

ELIZABETH, N. J., Oct. 25.—On account of deranged lights the passenger train with Master Mechanic C. G. Mehaus, as engineer, R. J. Swackhammer, Master of Bridges, as fireman, ran off the switch. Three cars telescoped. Two were killed, and two seriously and fifteen slightly hurt. It is supposed that a striking engineer laid the trap, but there is no proof.

A Stage Falls Over a Precipice—Passengers Make a Narrow Escape.

[Special to the News.]

HENRY'S STATION, N. C., via Salisbury, Oct. 25th 1876.

Last evening, just after dark, the lead horses of the stage from Asheville become unmanageable on the mountain two miles from here, and jumped headlong down a precipice of fifty feet, dragging the other horses and stage with them. Mr. Nutt and wife, Mrs. Wm. Parsley and daughters, Mrs. W. P. Taylor and children, and Major Englehard, all of Wilmington, and Mrs. Brosher, of Tennesee, passengers, were in the stage. Mr Nutt, Maj. Engelhard and Misses Parsleys were on the top. Maj. Engelhard got the young ladies off, jumping off with one, and assisted those inside to alight just as the stage fell over the precipice; one horse holding the stage up a moment, after the other three were dangling in the air, gave the necessary time to save the lives of all. The statement for 1876 showed liabilities to be $3 378.27, and assets $62.943.71, leaving a surplus of $7,565 44. SOUTH CAROLINA.

The Political Situation—Hampton's Chances Imperilled—A Fair Election Demanded—Troops to Protect Colored Democrats.

[Special to N. Y. Sun.]

CHARLESTON, S. C., Oct. 23, '76.

Both sides recognize the fact that the result of the election in South Carolina hinges upon Charleston county. The heavy majority Hampton will get in the upper portion of the State will be offset by the solid black vote on the coast, so that the large vote of Charleston county will suffice to turn the scale. The county has hitherto been regarded as a Republican stronghold, having about twenty-two thousand voters, of whom only seven thousand are whites.

In the past the Democrats have been partially successful in the city elections, but have made no attempt to carry the county against the dense black population on the adjacent Sea Islands, who are under the absolute sway of Sheriff Bowen, the ex Congressman, whose record is well known in the courts of Washington. But in this campaign the Democrats have succeeded in inducing a considerable minority of the island blacks to support Hampton. Violent intolerance prevails on the islands, and the Republican negroes say that they will kill every negro who attempts to vote the Democratic ticket.

The proclamation of the Governor and President cut off hope of protection for the black Democrats from the city rifle clubs, and unless a squad of Federal troops can be had for every polling place in Charleston county, outside of the city, Chamberlain will secure a sufficient majority here to insure his re-election.

A committee of prominent Democrats, consisting of ex-Gov. Aiken, ex-Gov. Magrath and ex Gov. Dessaussure, go to Columbia to-morrow morning to urge on Gen. Ruger, in the interest of fairness and peace, such a distribution of troops at the polls.

CHAMBERLAIN DISARMS THE OLD GERMAN FUSILEERS.

CHARLESTON, S. C., Oct. 23.—Gov. Chamberlain has sent a written demand to the German Fusileers of Charleston, one of the oldest military organizations in the Union, to give up the State arms in their possession, and inquiring whether or not their organization has disbanded in obedience to his own and the President's proclamation. The Fusileers were organized in 1775, and served throughout the revolution and war of 1812.

Similar written demands have been addressed to other volunteer organizations holding State arms, and will be promptly complied with. Eighteen companies of United States troops, aggregating 1,200 men, have arrived in Columbia since the President's proclamation was issued. Additional military posts have been established at Blackville, Summerville and Bennettville.

DAILY ARRIVAL OF TROOPS.

COLUMBIA, S. C., Oct. 23.—Troops are arriving daily. Thirteen companies are now in Columbia and twenty-four in other parts of the State. Everything is perfectly quiet throughout the State. Affidavits affirming peace and submission to law are received daily. The political campaign is conducted vigorously by both parties. The so-called rifle clubs have all disbanded. The colored militia are still organized.

Vance's Kinston Speech.

[Special to N. Y. Herald.]

KINSTON, N. C., Oct. 23, 1876.

Hon. Zebulon B. Vance, Democratic nominee for Governor, spoke here to-day, for two hours and a quarter, to upwards of 3,000 people from Wayne, Greene, Pitt, Jones, Craven, Onslow and Lenoir counties. He was received at the railroad depot by the Greenville cornet band and a great concourse of citizens, of whom many were on horseback. Immense enthusiasm was manifested. Gov. Vance claimed that he steadfastly maintained the supremacy of the civil over the military authority throughout the war. Horatio Seymour, of New York, being the only other State Governor who did so. He said that he told Jefferson Davis's Secretary of War, in the absence of any Confederate States Supreme Court, that the decisions of the Supreme Court of North Carolina, adverse to Davis's harsh measures, were law to him, and if the Confederate government did not respect them he would call upon the State militia to enforce them, and that he would, if necessary, issue a proclamation recalling the North Carolina troops from Lee's army to sustain him.

A Strong Sign.

[Richmond Dispatch.]

The population of Washington consists, in a great degree, of persons in Government pay in one way and another, and also of multitudes that get support from those who are officers of the Government and from the community of representatives of the States who sojourn in the Federal city for so many months in every year. It will be readily seen that such a population must be greatly excited about the approaching election. At present it is nearly all Republican, and the appearance of things is alarming to them. They fear they will lose their places.—Many of them are getting quite shaky, while many others confide to intimate friends the information that "they are for Tilden!" The other day one of the poor souls thus on the anxious bench made a confidential communication to this effect to a devoted friend, who asked how it was possible he could remain in office and the friend and associate of ultra Radicals with such a feeling in his breast? The answer was: "Well, I must take care of myself; and as they are all going I must go too!" We should say this is a first-rate sign. These Washington people are not voters in the Presidential election, but then how their offices agitate them.

The Centennial Commission Perpetuated.

The Philadelphia papers state that an informal meeting of members of the United States Centennial Commission was held recently for the purpose of making that body a permanent organization, with a view of cherishing perpetually the remembrances and friendships of the Centennial commission while engaged in the management of the exhibition. A committee was appointed, of which Hon. J. H. B Latrobe, of Maryland, is chairman, to draw up a constitution. By its provisions membership is confined entirely to persons heretofore approved members of the United States Centennial Commission by the President of the United States, in accordance with the act of Congress, or to the oldest male heir of any such member, after the latter's death, and so on in posterity. The organization is called the Society of the United States Centennial Commission, and is similar in every respect to the Society of Cincinnatus. It bears about the same relation to the latter as do the figures 1876 to 1776. The resignation of any person from the commission does not prevent him from remaining or becoming a member of the society. The organization will meet triennially, probably in Memorial Hall.

Ohio In November.

John G. Thompson, Chairman of the Ohio State Executive Committee, writes to Ex-Gov. Walker of Virginia as follows:

"The Republicans, failing to increase their majority of last year in Ohio, have suffered a defeat that they cannot recover from, a defeat that will give increased confidence to the Democracy throughout the Union and do much to secure the election of our standard-bearers, Tilden and Hendricks. Our friends from all parts of Ohio are full of hope and are enthusiastic to renew the fight, with the conviction that the electoral vote of the State can and will be given to our candidates on the 7th of November."

A Day of Prayer.

It was announced in all the white churches of Charleston, S. C. on Sunday last, that to-day, the 26th, would be observed as a day of fasting, humiliation and prayer for the success of the movement for good government in that State. This announcement was based upon the request of the Chairman of the Democratic State Executive Committee, and it is understood the request will be observed throughout the State by the white and colored Democrats.

A Campaign Lie—Nail it!

We clip the following from the N. Y. Tribune:

WASHINGTON, Oct. 23.—At a Cabinet meeting to-morrow it is expected that the situation at the South will receive earnest attention. Some most significant reports, many of them of a private character, have reached the Government which call for grave consideration. Some official statements concerning Louisiana and South Carolina affairs will be given to the press to-night. Information of a positive character has been received that armed bodies of mounted men from Georgia are riding through portions of South Carolina intimidating colored voters by means of threats to commit outrage. These parties are armed and drilled and have the appearance of rebel cavalry. They ride in connection with what appears to be recognized companies of Gen. Wade Hampton's cavalry with their old officers. Some of these organizations have also appeared in the western and southwestern counties of North Carolina, and their work there is the same as that of the Georgia squadrons operating in South Carolina.

[This is a lie out of the whole cloth as to North Carolina.]
